“In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.” Proverbs 3: 6

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
 Greetings in the precious name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This month begins with “World Sunday School Day”, we are celebrating the children’s day on 17th November. Children are the gift of God. God loved the children. God speaks through children. We have to follow certain principles in order to have effective communication. One principle is listening to what God has to say to us. In 1 Samuel 3: 1 – 21, we see that Samuel listens to the voice of God. He listens to God. And he does this at an early age. The bible says that God spoke to the boy Samuel three times in one night but he thought it was Eli calling him. Twice the old man was puzzled, but after the third time the old man understood that God was trying to speak to Samuel. “Go lie down. If He calls again, say “Speak Lord for thy servant hearth.” Why God selects one boy to speak to Israel? God only knows, but we know that because of sin the communication between God and people of Israel was cut off. Instead of speaking this time through conscience and through his providence, he speaks through this small boy, maybe a sinless boy, who does the will of God.

God blesses children

In Ephesians 6:1-4 we see the duties of parents and children with regards to the duties of children. The apostle advises the children to obey and honor their parents. The reasons Paul gives are a. It is right b. It is commandment c. It is the first of the commandment with a promise. The promise gives expectation of long life and prosperity. In the bible long life is the favor of God.

May God enable us to understand children and help them to grow in spirituality.
