Presbyter's Message

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

We are celebrating the youth day on 3rd October 2009. I thank God for the leadership and participation of the youth in church activities. Today's youth are rich in financial resources, intelligence, dynamism and openness. Despite all these resources, they are at the crossroads. They have none to guide them. They seem to be misled by certain ideologies and anti-human and anti-religious groups. In this kind of situation, they are misled. Only God can help them to go in for a meaningful life.

Our Lord Jesus himself is the great example to find God and His purposes. Jesus Christ realized from his very young age his mission and the purposes for which God has created him. For all young people, our Lord Jesus is the only model. At the very young age Jesus could say an emphatic no to all temptations the world offered and become victorious to live among us and to guide us. The founders of so many Christian organizations like SCM of India, YMCA and many others have envisioned on the foundation of Jesus Christ, His life and teachings.

Some of our youth found an easy way of leading a Christian life for eg: singing, clapping, dancing, and attending the revival meetings which they think make them better Christians. The teachings of Jesus Christ goes beyond the singing and clapping. Our Lord Jesus asked us to follow Him, taking up the cross. The Nazareth Manifesto is to preach the good news to the poor, recovery of sight to the blind, and release the oppressed, which certainly points out to serving the people in need.

The youth of today should carefully analyze their spirituality. Their spirituality should depend on their commitment to Jesus Christ than anybody else in the Bible. Millions of people have found Jesus Christ as the best person to study and follow, to have a better life. Jesus should certainly be a great role model for all youth.

Jesus' model suggests living for others would be the perfect road for searching new meaning in the life of Jesus Christ or the Kingdom values is "Jesus Christ: The men for others"

Our annual convention will be held from 6th to 9th of October 2009. The convention speaker is Rev. Dr. Oommen George (Vicar, St. Thomas C.S.I. Church, Nedugadapally). I request your kind prayer and presence for our annual convention.

May God bless you and protect you from all the difficulties. God bless you all

Rev. Jacob T. Abraham
Vicar
