Parish Messenger October 2007

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Sing to the Lord

Songs are the vibrations of and the reflections of feelings. Christians have many reasons to sing. Singing is very much related in worshipping God. What for we sing in our day-to-day life.

Sing to the Lord for what He is and for what He has done

The trinity is suggested of course, by the repetition, Holy, Holy, Holy Rev.4: 8. The prophet Isaiah witnessed a similar scene, when he saw the Lord on the throne. As he watched, he heard the seraphin say, "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord of hosts, the whole earth is full of his glory (Is.6: 3). Sing to the True God. Sing of Gods sovereignty. The word throne is used 46 times in the entire book of revelation. The prophet Isaiah also saw the Lord sitting upon a throne (Is.6: 1) our sovereign God is the one who sits on the throne. He is a holy God, an eternal God, gracious God and faithful God. So sing to the Lord what he is? And also He deserves the glory for what He has done to us. He cares us. He has a way for us to walk. He has a purpose for us. He has delivered us. Ex 15:1-19, He has given victory (1Samuel 18:6-7) and so many things he has done to us. As Mary sang, "For he the mighty Holy one has done great things to me. (Luke 1: 49) We too have many reasons to sing to the Lord for what He has done to us.

Sing In Joy

Is anyone happy? Let him sing songs of praise. Is 5: 13. We rejoice when some pleasant things happen in our lives. For most joy comes when our sin is forgiven. Salvation is only accompanied by happiness. In Luke 15, Jesus told three parables that illustrated the joy people experience when the lost is found. When the shepherd found the one lost sheep he rejoiced and even invited his neighbors to celebrate with him. (Luke 15: 3-6) Likewise, when the woman recovered the lost coin (verse 8-9). When the prodigal son repented and returned and returned home, his arrival was greeted with joyful singing and feasting. (Verse 11- 14). Every person who received Christ's Salvation has a wonderful reason to sing. When you know Jesus as your Savior, He gives you a song. Salvation is one of the reasons. We have many other experiences to sing to the lord.

Worries, sickness, loss and failures cause us to mourn and weep. It is not ridiculous to sing in such situations. But faithful Christians can sing in the time of afflictions and tribulations. After Paul and Silas had been severely flogged they were thrown in to Philipppians jail. They in spite of their feelings, circumstances and aging sang hymns to God. He will deliver us from all evils.

While we celebrated our Choir Day on 29th September, I wish all good wishes to our choir members and Leaders.

GOD BLESS YOU

Kuwait with Love and Prayers
